The Tri-County Literacy Network provides:

- Public education and literacy awareness
- Support to literacy programs
- Workshops for literacy staff
- Community planning
- Information and referrals
- Regular newsletters and bulletins
- An up-to-date literacy Resource Library including the "Learning To Earning" videos. These videos were developed as part of an Employment Ontario project funded by the Ontario government. They are also on our website at http://tcln.on.ca/videos/

IT'S A FACT!

42% of adults in Canada struggle with reading and writing demands of everyday life at home, at work and in their communities.

Vision:

We envision a community in which literacy and life-long learning are highly valued.

Mission:

The Tri-County Literacy Network is a non-profit organization that promotes literacy as an important part of life-long learning. We provide support to adult literacy programs and develop community partnerships with other promoters of learning in Chatham-Kent, Sarnia-Lambton, and Windsor-Essex.

We promote literacy as an important part of life-long learning by:

- offering special events and presentations for the community

We support adult literacy programs by:

- facilitating local planning and coordination of services in Chatham-Kent, Sarnia-Lambton, and Windsor-Essex
- coordinating the ongoing professional development of literacy staff
- increasing public awareness of the nature and extent of the literacy needs of adults
- sharing critical information
