This is based on historical data increasing a marked increase in students with this goal. A slight increase in the number of learners with a goal path of apprenticeship as links to apprenticeship and employment services programs becomes stronger and service coordination focus continues to grow. A slight decrease in the employment pathway due to labour market changes. The Lambton College AU program will continue to monitor and analyze the impact of post-secondary admission business cycles on the AU student intake and outcome activity. The business cycles are very different and create activity peaks in the first quarter of the AU program fiscal. (Greatest referral source to program for students with post-secondary goal path).
